

P

PORTLAND ART MUSEUM

MILLER FAMILY FREE DAY FREE ADMISSION

Saturday,
April 22, 2017

10 a.m.–5 p.m.

TODAY'S EVENTS...

NOON–4 P.M.

Art-Making with Middle School Art Students from Boise-Eliot/Humboldt–Kinney Classroom

NOON–2 P.M.

Screenings of selections from the Northwest Film Center's Fresh Film Northwest, a juried survey of work by regional teen filmmakers. Drop-in anytime.
–Whitsell Auditorium

1 P.M. & 2 P.M.

Storytime with the Multnomah County Library
–Floor 2, Modern & Contemporary Art Wing

1:30–2:30 P.M.

Student-led Discussion
Re-Constructing Identity: A Look at Circumstances that Shape Us with Tyler White, De La Salle North Catholic High School student –Constructing Identity Exhibition

2:45–3:35 P.M.

Performance by the Beaumont Middle School Jazz Ambassadors
–Whitsell Auditorium

Tours depart from the Main lobby

12:30 P.M.

Public Tour Drawing is Seeing

3 P.M.

Public Tour Constructing Identity

Also visit...

The HEART of Portland:
A Portland Public Schools K-12 Arts Showcase
–Miller Gallery, Mark Building

Family Programs are generously supported in part by Sharon L. Miller and Family, the Gordon D. Sondland and Katherine J. Durant Foundation, the Lamb Baldwin Foundation, and the OCF Joseph E. Weston Public Foundation.

Stop by the 50% off Art Book Sale
in the Museum Store

ABOVE: Avel de Knight (American, 1923–1995), The Rehearsal, 1955, oil on canvas. © Estate of Avel de Knight.

portlandartmuseum.org