Creating a Found Poem

Creating a "found poem" from a Holocaust survivor's testimony can be a way to pay respectful attention to and honor his or her experiences. A found poem is one that is created using only words that have been copied and rearranged from another text.

Once you have identified a survivor testimony (from a reading, video, or in-person presentation), use the following steps to create your poem.

- 1. Read the testimony at least two to three times. If possible, read it aloud at least once.
- 2. While reading the testimony one additional time, copy down at least 15 to 20 words or phrases from it that you find memorable or powerful.
- 3. Arrange the words and phrases you have selected into a poem. You might want to copy the words and phrases onto notecards or separate sheets of paper so that you can easily rearrange them. Try to arrange the words in a way that captures what you think is the essence of the testimony, as well as your experience of hearing it.

Here are a few more guidelines for creating your poem:

- You DON'T have to use all of the words and phrases you chose.
- You CAN repeat words or phrases.
- You CAN'T add other words besides those you copied from the testimony.
- Your poem DOESN'T have to rhyme.
- 4. When you are satisfied with your poem, give it a title.
