

Main Building, Native American Art, Floor 2, Galleries 210, 211, 212, 213

Welcome to the
Portland Art Museum!

Explore the galleries through BINGO.

- Adults and youth play BINGO together! These cards are a chance for all ages to talk, draw, and discover together. Kids under 10 will especially appreciate adult support.
- Draw or write your answers in each box or on the back.
- There is more than one answer for many of the questions.
- Completing a row is great. Completing the whole board is even better!
- Not sure what to do when you are done? Check the back of this card for some ideas...

MESOAMERICAN & SOUTH AMERICAN

Find the artwork of a figure from Veracruz, Mexico that is seated on a chair. How many tassels do you see coming from the figure's belt?

Gallery 210

Name one of the forms of jewelry that you see displayed.

Gallery 210

Find the artwork Dance Scene from West Mexico. How many figures do you see?

Gallery 210

NORTHWEST COAST

Find Bear Mask made by a Kwakwaka'wakw artist. How many feathers are on top?

Gallery 211

Find the painted cedar Rattle made by a Tsimshian artist. What little green animal is on the bird's back?

Gallery 211

How many different kinds of animals do you see in this gallery? List the names of each animal you can identify here.

Galleries 211 & 212

SOUTHWEST

Find Rose B Simpson's To Be Pueblo II. How many clay birds do you see?

Gallery 213: McFarland

Find Maria Martinez's pottery. Choose one of her artworks and write the name here. Draw one of the designs you see on the artwork.

Gallery 213: McFarland

Find your favorite artwork in this gallery. Write the name and then sketch the artwork here.

Gallery 213: McFarland

What to do when you are done:

- 1) Sketch two of your favorite pieces.
- 2) Write two questions about things you wonder about the pieces.
- 3) Compare two artworks from two different regions. What looks similar and what looks different?

Did you know
that children 17 and
under are always
free at the museum?

Main Building, Native American Art, Floor 2, Gallery 211, 213, 214

Welcome to the
Portland Art Museum!

Explore the galleries through BINGO.

- Adults and youth play BINGO together! These cards are a chance for all ages to talk, draw, and discover together. Kids under 10 will especially appreciate adult support.
- Draw or write your answers in each box or on the back.
- There is more than one answer for many of the questions.
- Completing a row is great. Completing the whole board is even better!
- Not sure what to do when you are done? Check the back of this card for some ideas...

NORTHWEST COAST	CALIFORNIA & GREAT BASIN	WOODLANDS
Find Young Ravens Mask. Around what date was it carved? Gallery 211	Find Bernice Akamine's 'ahu'ula. What three feather colors do you see? Gallery 214	Find Tessa Sayer's Anishinabe Woman's Satchel. What images do you see on the artwork? List three of the colors you see. Write both answers here. Gallery 213
Find Calvin Hunt, Jr.'s Raven to the Sun Transformation Costume. How many claws are on each foot? Gallery 211	Find American and Wiyot artist Rick Bartow's painting of a bird. Name the painting. When was it made? Gallery 214	Find Gail Tremblay's In Great Expectations, there is no Red Leader. What is one thing that makes it different from the other baskets near it in the case? Gallery 213
Find your favorite artwork in this gallery that has an animal in it. List the name of the animal here. Why do you think this animal was used for this artwork? Gallery 211	Find the Mohave dolls. Choose one and list what materials it is made from. Sketch it here. Gallery 214	Find your favorite artwork from this region and sketch it here. What materials is it made from? Gallery 213

What to do when you are done:

- 1) Sketch two of your favorite pieces.
- 2) Write two questions about things you wonder about the pieces.
- 3) Compare two artworks from two different regions. What looks similar and what looks different?

Did you know
that children 17 and
under are always
free at the museum?