THANK YOU FOR VISITING!

DO
• Ask Museum staff for assistance.
• Capture your visit with photographs. Unless otherwise noted, photography is allowed without flash, monopod, or tripod.
• Enjoy the art, but please do not touch.
• If you have questions about accessibility and inclusion, the Visitor Services staff are happy to assist you.

HOURS
Monday & Tuesday  CLOSED
Wednesday – Sunday 10 a.m. – 5 p.m.

During your visit, photos and/or videos may be taken of you and your group by Museum staff or contracted photographers to be used for education and promotional purposes.

WELCOME!
The Portland Art Museum strives to be a safe space for respectful dialogue, conversation, and exchange of ideas. We want you to have the best experience possible, whether you wander the galleries and discover or plan your visit to include specific collections and works.

SHARE YOUR VISIT
#portlandartmuseum

VISITOR GUIDE & MAP
Private Lives: Home and Family in the Art of the Nabis, Paris, 1889–1900
Through January 23, 2022
- European Art
- Native American Art

Color Line: Black Excellence on the World Stage
Through November 28, 2021
- Access to Modern & Contemporary Wing

Queen Nefertari’s Egypt
Through January 16, 2022
- Chinese Art
- Museum Store
- Exit

ACCESSIBLE ENTRANCE & EXIT

ISAKA SHAMSUD-DIN
Rock of Ages
Through Spring 2022
- Native American Art
- Northwest Art

APEX: Sharita Towne
Through July 2022
AUX/MUTE Gallery
presented by the Numberz FM

MESH
Through May 8, 2022

Photography gallery closed

DECORATIVE ARTS

EAST ASIAN ARTS

ARCHITECTURAL HISTORICAL COLLECTION

OFFICE