3 Fruit Magazine 11 a.m.–3 p.m.

Fallen Fruit (David Burns & Austin Young)
Location: Portland Art Museum
Lower Level, Stevens Room

Help create a limited edition magazine in one-day using storytelling and hand-made collage. Fruit Magazine will become available for PDF download.

4 Public Fruit Portraits Noon–4 p.m.
(Apple Edition)

Fallen Fruit and Portland Art Museum
Location: Portland Art Museum
Lower Level, Kinney Classroom

Create a hand-made 3D self portrait using a fresh apple as the sculpting material. Apples will be preserved using lemon juice and table salt.

5 apples & pomegranates 1 p.m. & 3 p.m.

Tahni Holt, Portland
Location: Portland Art Museum
1 p.m. 2nd Floor, Modern Wing
3 p.m. 4th Floor, Main Building

Watch a dance performance that is built on the mythological idea of Eve eating the apple in the Garden of Eden and explores rejected female stereotypes and the contemporary body.

6 War Hoop Flash Mob 2 p.m.

Natalie Ball, Chiloquin
Location: Portland Art Museum
Lower Level Main Building

Add your voice to a War Hoop. Also known as a battle cry, Lii-Lii is a vocal projection used for intimidation, celebration, and energy charge. Everyone is invited to participate.

7 Wallpaper Coloring Page Noon–4 p.m.

Location: Portland Art Museum
Lower Level, Kinney Classroom

Collaborate with others to group author a hand-colored section of Fallen Fruit’s apple wallpaper. The pattern is the same as the Paradise exhibition.

8 The Culture of We Noon–5 p.m.

Caldera Youth Exhibition
Location: Wieden + Kennedy Gallery
224 NW 13th Ave.

Celebrate the Caldera student exhibit inspired by Paradise created by Fallen Fruit (David Burns and Austin Young).

9 Division of Identification All Day

Fallen Fruit (David Burns & Austin Young)
Location: Parkway starting in front of museum and heading through downtown Portland to PNCA parking lot.

Selected portraits from the Portland City Archive of police-record mug-shots are source material for a public art installation that unmask historic issues of humanity often camouflaged by social stereotypes.

10 Paradise Lost 6 p.m.–8 p.m.

Bruce Conkle, Portland
Location: RACC
411 NW Park Ave.

Explore the theme of apples in history, mythology, and pop culture through projections on the side of the RACC building. Bruce invites audience members to make images for projection.

11 A Monument for Bicyclists Noon–4 p.m.

Bill Cravis, Bend
Location: South Parks Block by the equestrian statue of Theodore Roosevelt across from Portland Art Museum

Be a hero! Bring your bike and become a temporary “living statue” atop a miniature plinth. Your photo will taken and posted online so you can share it.

12 Sweet Nothings and Other Stories Noon–5 p.m.

Aaron Lish, Bend
Location: Along the Willamette Riverfront trail at Ankeny (near the sewer pumping station)

Celebrate the Willamette River by sharing stories, poetry, and songs with the river. An installation at the Riverwalk overlook will conduct voices down to the water.

13 Rock Moving Rocks 11 a.m.–5 p.m.

Jess Perlitz, Portland
Location: The route begins near the Hawthorne Bridge moving along the Eastbank Esplanade, over the Tilikum Crossing, ending at the Portland Art Museum.

The artist will be a rock and will move other rocks as it maneuvers through the city. The rock will engage with people as needed through music and actions. Follow her location via Twitter at @jess_perlitz

14 The Right Hand of Fellowship Noon–4 p.m.

DeAngelo Raines, Portland
Location: South Parks Blocks near the Lincoln Statue

Learn handshakes in this choreographed public performance that actively demonstrates formal and informal greetings from seven different archetypes of the adult African-American male.

Enjoy A Day in Paradise! All activities are free and open to the public.
